

Weekend wrap-up: Locals sparkle at third Manny Flick

Main Line Suburban

Monday, April 04, 2011

Crew

Radnor (girls) raced three boats in three afternoon events at the third Manny Flick Sunday. Radnor's second Varsity Eight placed first in its flight—almost 10 seconds ahead of the second-place boat in its flight.

The Red Raiders also placed first in time among second Varsity Eight boats. This boat included Liz Bereznek, Greer Howard, Haley Callinan, Celia Parkin, Lauren Turner, Carly MacCormick, Meghan Gerber, Rebecca Michelson and Sophie Faude (coxswain).

Radnor continued with a first place finish by the Varsity Eight. The Raiders finished five seconds ahead of the second-place boat, Mount St. Joseph, in the last girls race of the day. The Varsity Eight boat included Sydney Cantor (coxswain), Kendall Chapin, Chandler Lally, Sophia Blair, Lexie Katz, Alli Webster, Emma Burke, Hannah Edelman and Kirsten Fitch.

Full article at

<http://mainlinemedianews.com/articles/2011/04/04/sports/doc4d99cf72e72a2391842436.txt>

Radnor's second Varsity 8 included, from left: Sophie Faude (coxswain), Liz Bereznek, Greer Howard, Haley Callinan, Celia Parkin, Lauren Turner, Carly MacCormick, Meghan Gerber and Rebecca Michelson. (Karen Fitch photo)

I am sending two photos of the Varsity 8 - Radnor girls varsity eight consisted of (from left) Kirsten Fitch, Hannah Edelman, Emma Burke, Alli Webster, Lexie Katz, Sophia Blair, Chandler Lally, Kendall Chapin and Sydney Cantor (coxswain). (Lisa Webster photo)